

Can you spot your 'initial sound' in the environment?

Can you find a picture of you when you were a baby? How have you changed?

How many people are there is your family? Can you draw a picture of them?

How many items can you put in a basket and carry?

Research some facts about Owls. Will you use a book or computer? Bring the information into nursery to share.

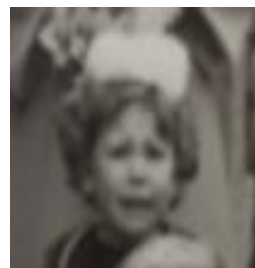

How many hops can you do on your left leg?

How many hops can you do on your right leg?

How many jumps can you do?

Can you match the teacher to the baby picture?

If you do any home learning please put it on tapestry, we would love to see it