Stephen Freeman's

Reading Spine

Stephen Freeman's reading

At Stephen Freeman, we believe that all children should have the opportunity to experience high quality text that help children to become engaged in reading and to develop an intrinsic motivational love of reading.

We have created a reading spine, for each Year group, of fiction and non-fiction texts, with the aim to create a living library inside a child's mind: a store of classics and essential reads that help children engage at a deeper level and enter the world of the story, fostering a love of reading from Nursery through to Year 6.

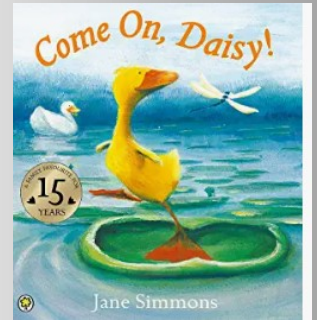

We have also created a recommended reads pages for you to enjoy
